The total volume of sustainable investments reached a record level with €219 bn. Sustainable investment funds and mandates record the biggest growth rates since the beginning of the survey gaining €41 bn and reaching a market share of 4.5%.

With a volume of €1.5 tn the sum of responsible investments is almost six times higher than the volume of sustainable investments.

Sustainable Investment Strategies

All sustainable investment strategies greatly increased – Coal is new among the top ten.

Key Facts

- Sustainable investments reach a new peak with €219 bn.
- Sustainable funds and mandates grow by €41 bn and reach a market share of 4.5%.
- Coal is new in the top ten of exclusion criteria.
- Market growth is mainly driven by institutional investors.
- Special banks grew by 8%.
- At €1.5 bn, the volume of responsible investments is six times higher than the sum of sustainable investments.

For further information on the Market Study 2019: www.forum-ng.org/Marktbericht